the next 50 games for the Rockies...posted 300th career double on June 18 vs. Baltimore, becoming the first player in Rockies history to reach that milestone...batted .418 in interleague play, 3rd-highest average in the majors behind Carlos Lee (.444) and Luis Rivas (.421)...Todd's 28 interleague hits trailed only Carl Crawford (29) and his 20 RBI ranked 2nd behind Jim Thome (21)...recorded his 500th RBI at Coors Field on Aug. 20, joining Larry Walker as the only players with 500 RBI at that ballpark...drew at least one walk in a career-high 8 consecutive games, Aug. 12-21, tying a franchise record...batted .414 in the month of September, tops in the NL and 2nd in the majors behind Seattle's Jeremy Reed (.423)...compiled an 11-game hitting streak, Sept. 22-Oct. 1, during which he hit .500 (19-for-38) with 4 doubles, 2 homers and 11 RBI...it equaled his longest streak of the season, as he also hit safely in 11 straight from June 25-July 6...batted .475 (28-for-59) over his final 16 games with 12 RBI but fell short of 6th consecutive 100 RBI campaign...in the final home game of the season, Sept. 27 vs. St. Louis, Todd belted his 155th career home run at Coors Field, breaking Walker's ballpark record of 154.

2003: Helton finished .00022 points behind Albert Pujols in what was the closest batting race in National League history...Pujols went 2-for-5 on the season's final day to finish at .35871 while Helton was 2-for-4 to finish at .35849...with Pujols' game already completed, Helton came to bat in the 8th inning at Qualcomm Stadium needing just one hit to secure the batting crown, only to be walked intentionally...the closest previous race in NL history occurred in 1931, when St. Louis' Chick Hafey beat out New York's Bill Terry by .00028...overall, it was the 3rd-closest race in major league history...Helton matched Joe DiMaggio as the only players in the history of the game to hit at least .315 with 25 home runs and 95 RBI in each of their first 6 full seasons...became one of only 6 players in ML history to record a .300 batting average, 30 HR, 100 RBI and 100 runs in 5 consecutive years...the others? Lou Gehrig (9 seasons, 1929-37), Babe Ruth (7, 1926-32), Jimmie Foxx (5, 1932-36), Frank Thomas (5, 1993-97) and Vladimir Guerrero (5, 1998-2002)...Helton did not lead the NL in batting average for a single day and was actually 56 points behind Pujols on the morning of June 15 (.379 to .323)...from that point until the end of the season, Todd batted .385 (129-for-335)...he hit .373 after the All-Star Break, including a .383 mark in September...only Barry Bonds (.388) had a higher 2nd half average...won his 4th straight Louisville Silver Slugger Award as the NL's top hitting first baseman...surpassed 200 hits for the 2nd time in his career, finishing with 209, runner-up to Pujols (212) in the NL...became the only player in Rockies history to have 200 hits twice in their career...drew 111 walks, tying Jim Thome for 2nd in the NL behind Bonds (148)...Helton's 21 intentional walks ranked 3rd in the NL...led majors with a .417 average with runners in scoring position, the only qualifier to hit above .400...paced the majors with a .391 average at home but also had the 8th-highest road average in the NL at .324...hit .387 vs. left-handers, which not only led all southpaws that season but was the 3rd-highest average by a left-handed hitter vs. left-handed pitching since the stat was first recorded in 1974...only Cincinnati's Ken Griffey Sr. in 1976 (.393) and the Cubs' Bill Buckner in 1978 (.389) posted

SEEING DOUBLE

Todd Helton has the most doubles in the majors since 1998 (371), since 1999 (334), since 2000 (295), since 2001 (236), since 2002 (182), and 2003 (143)...in fact, his 326 doubles from 1998 to 2004 represent the fourth most over a seven-year span in major league history...he and Joe Medwick are the only players in major league history to hit at least 35 doubles in each of their first seven full seasons in the majors...Todd's current run of eight consecutive 35-double seasons is tied for the second-longest such streak in ML history.

plateau (676 games)...Nomar Garciaparra was the quickest (587)...earned NL Player of the Month for May after hitting .347 with 10 home runs, the 2nd-most clouts in a single month for his career (11 in May of 2000)...scored his 500th career run May 10 at Shea Stadium...tallied his 200th double May 26 at San Francisco...on June 15 vs. Cleveland, made his 670th career start at first base, passing Andres Galarraga (669) for most starts at first base in team history...went 80 at-bats without a home run from June 22-July 24, a then-career long homerless drought...snapped that July 24 at Arizona, the first of three straight games with a long ball...belted his 2nd career grand slam Aug. 7 vs. Cincinnati off Joey Hamilton...set a career high with 4 strikeouts on Sept. 1 at San Diego, the only 4-strikeout game of his professional career...missed 2 games near the end of the season to be with his wife, Christy, who gave birth to the couple's first child, Tierney Faith, on Sept. 24 in Denver.

2001: Became the first player in major league history to collect 100 extra base hits in consecutive seasons...joined Lou Gehrig (1927, '30) and Chuck Klein (1930, '32) as the only players to have 2 seasons of 100 extra base hits, consecutive or non-consecutive...nearly half of those (45) came on the road...with 402 total bases, he became only the 4th player in history--2nd in NL history--to total 400 bases in consecutive seasons, joining Klein (1929-30), Gehrig (1930-31) and Jimmie Foxx (1932-33)...finished 9th in National League MVP voting and 4th in the Hank Aaron Award...won his first career Rawlings Gold Glove, compiling a .999 fielding percentage, highest in the majors among first basemen...appeared in his 2nd career All-Star Game, making his first start...earned his 2nd consecutive Louisville Silver Slugger Award...was runner-up to Larry Walker for the NL batting title, hitting .336...Helton and Walker became the first NL teammates to finish 1-2 in the batting race since Willie Mays and Don Mueller did so for the 1954 New York Giants...Todd's 49 home runs not only matched a single-season franchise record (Walker, 1997) but also tied for the 10th-most by a first baseman in ML history...drove in 146 runs, 3rd-most in club history and second to only Sammy Sosa (160) in the NL...his 293 RBI in 2000-01 set a new team record (Galarraga, 290 in 1996-97)...hit 54 doubles, one behind Lance Berkman (55) for the ML lead...had 59 doubles in 2000 and thus became only the 7th player in major league history to record 50 doubles in consecutive seasons, the 4th National Leaguer...ranked among NL leaders in runs (2nd, 132), hits (4th, 197), OBP (4th, .432), slugging (4th, .656), and at-bats per home run (4th, 11.98)...led the team and finished T4th in the NL in games played (159)...posted the 2nd-best home batting average (.384) in the circuit, behind only Larry Walker's .406...had 59 multi-hit games, 5th-most in the NL and 8th in the majors...hit a league-best .354 against right-handed pitching...first error of 2001 came on June 30 in Arizona, breaking a string of 98 consecutive errorless games (841 total chances) dating back to Sept. 10, 2000, most ever by a Rockies infielder...he then converted his next 642 chances before committing his only other error of 2001 on Sept. 27 vs. San Diego...hit his first career grand slam on May 28 at Los Angeles off Eric Gagne...homed in a career-best 4 consecutive games, July 27-31...knocked in his 500th career run on Sept. 21 in Montreal...it took him only 651 career games, 2,311 AB to hit the 500 RBI mark, faster than any active player...collected his historic 100th extra-base on Sept. 30 vs. Milwaukee.

2000: Named Associated Press Major League Player of the Year and NL Player of the Year by the Players Choice Awards...earned the 2nd annual Hank Aaron Award...filled first-base slots on the NL's Louisville Silver Slugger team and AP Major League All-Star team...Baseball Digest named him its Major League Player of the Year as did USA Baseball...earned his first career All-Star appearance, an invitation from NL manager Bobby Cox...became only the 5th player ever, the first in 63 years, and the first ever in the National League, with at least 200 hits, 40 home runs, 100 RBI, 100 runs, 100 extra-base hits, and 100 walks, joining Babe Ruth (1921), Lou Gehrig (1927 & '30), Jimmie Foxx (1932) and Hank Greenberg (1937)...won his first career batting title by 17 points, leading the majors with a .372 average...Todd commanded the NL leaders over the season's final 127 days from May 28-Oct. 1...hit 42 home runs (7th in the NL)...only 3 players ever have combined that high of an average with that many home runs: Ruth in 1920, 1921, 1924 and 1931; Gehrig in 1927 and Rogers Hornsby in 1922...led the majors with 147 RBI, the 2nd-highest total in club history...also led the NL with a 3.9 AB/RBI ratio...his 59 doubles set a new club record and were the most in the majors in 64 years...the last players to hit at least 59 doubles in a season were the Cards' Joe Medwick (NL-record 64) and the Tigers' Charlie Gehringer (60), both in 1936...Helton, who led the NL in batting (.372), on-base percentage (.463) and slugging percentage (.698), gave the Rockies consecutive percentage triple crowns...Larry Walker in 1999 earned a percentage triple crown, the first in the majors since George Brett in 1980, and the first in the NL since Stan Musial in 1948...led the majors with 405 total bases...paced the NL with 63 multi-hit games, including his career-high 5 hits on May 3 vs. Montreal...posted a club-record 44 multi-RBI games, surpassing Galarraga's 42 in 1997...had 103 extra-base hits, T4th-most in major league history and just 4 short of Chuck Klein's 1930 senior circuit record...led NL first basemen in games (160), putouts (1,326), assists (149), total chances (1,482) and double plays (143)...his .995 fielding percentage ranked 3rd...tied Vladimir Guerrero for 3rd with a .353 road batting average...only Mike Piazza (.377) and Moises Alou (.362) hit better away from home...Todd's 31 road doubles led the majors...tied a club record with 8 multi-homer games, including his first career 3-homer game on May 1 vs. Montreal...that effort also gave him 13 total bases, matching another career best...led the league in batting with runners in scoring position (.392), both at night (.362) and during the day (.391), as well as vs. RHP (.387)...over a 180-game stretch from Aug. 11, 1999 to Aug. 28, 2000, hit .394 (258-for-655)...on Aug. 21 in the 6th inning, Helton singled to reach .400 exactly (178-for-445), becoming the first player since George Brett on Sept. 4, 1980 to touch .400 that late in the season...ended his day above .400 on 28 occasions: April 8-9, May 12-23 and May 27-June 10...hit .400 or better vs. 9 clubs, .500 or better vs. 4 teams and .625 vs. the Montreal Expos...earned the NL's Player of the Month in both May and August...in May, he batted .512 with 11 HR and 26 RBI...only 2 players in the 1990s hit at least .500 over a calendar month (min. 50 AB): Baltimore's Roberto Alomar in Sept. 1997 and Colorado's Larry Walker in Sept. 1998...in August, he batted .476 with 7 HR and 32 RBI...was named NL Player of the Week, May 8-14, and earned co-honors July 16-23 and Aug. 14-20...was issued a club-record 22 intentional walks for first time in his career...posted his 500th career hit July 18 vs. Oakland...recorded career HR No. 100 on Sept. 15 at Dodger Stadium...with hits in his first 10 games of the year, Todd registered the franchise's 2nd-longest streak to open a regular season (Ellis Burks, 14, 1994)...received the Walter Fenner "Buck" Leonard Legacy Award, presented by Buck O'Neil and the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum.

1999: Improved in almost every offensive category after his stellar rookie season...bolstered his batting average from .315 to .320, as well as home runs (25 to 35), RBI (97 to 113), on-base percentage (.380 to .395) and slugging percentage (.530 to .587)...hit nearly 100 points better in Rockies wins than in Rockies losses, and 23 of his 35 HR, and 75 of his 113 RBI, came in Colorado victories...on June 18 vs. Florida, Todd was 3-for-5, tied a career-high with 5 RBI and homered twice, the second of which was his first career game-ending home run...one night later, on June 19, Helton doubled, singled and homered; in his 4th trip, knowing he needed his first triple since May of 1998, he drove a pitch off the right-field wall and slid into third, posting the 3rd cycle in club history...he capped the week with a homer and 2 more RBI and ran away with the NL Player of the Week...at one point during the Marlins series, he reached base in 8 straight trips...Helton's first four hits after his cycle were a homer, single, double and triple...fell one hit shy of a 2nd cycle on 4 occasions.

1998: In the closest balloting in 16 years, Todd finished 2nd in the NL Rookie of the Year race, despite leading all major-league rookies in average (.315), homers (25), RBI (97), multi-hit games (49), total bases (281), slugging percentage (.530) and extra-base hits (63)...finished 9 points behind Cubs' Kerry Wood, still the 2nd-closest finish in NL since modern voting method was introduced in 1980...among NL rookies, he was first in runs (78), hits (167), and on-base percentage (.380)...since 1972, only Mike Piazza (35), David Justice (28) and Darryl Strawberry (26) had more homers as an NL rookie, and only Piazza had more RBI (112)...on May 10 at Montreal, Todd registered his first career multi-homer game...led the majors in August with a .398 average, hitting safely in 24 of his 29 games with 29 RBI...went 5-for-8 in an August 18 doubleheader at New York, pushing his average past .300, where it would remain the rest of the year...finished 2nd to Jeff Kent in the NL Player of the Month ing .386 average with men in scoring position was 4th in the NL.

1997: Opened the season at Triple-A, where he was hitting .352 upon his Aug. 1 recall...made a memorable major league debut Aug. 2 at Pittsburgh...batting 5th and starting in left, he flied out in his first at-bat but singled in his 2nd trip off Francisco Cordova for his first career hit...after a walk, he belted his first big-league homer, a solo shot off Marc Wilkins...became just 2nd Colorado player (Jay Gainer: May 14, 1993) and remains one of 5 Rockies to ever hit a HR in their ML debut...the next day at Three Rivers, he picked up 2 more hits and his 2nd HR...Helton hit safely in his first 4 games in the majors (7-for-16)...made 14 starts in the outfield (13 in LF, 1 in RF) and posted 2 assists...also started 7 games at first base.

1996: Helton began his first full pro season with Double-A New Haven, but moved to Triple-A July 30, going 3-for-4 in his debut at that level...after 3 consecutive hitless games in early April, Todd did not go more than 2 straight games without a hit, including his stint in Triple-A...named the best defensive first baseman in the Eastern League...had a single and a home run in the Double-A All-Star game on July 8.

1995: Debuted as a pro with Asheville (A) of the South Atlantic League...batted .254 with one home run and 15 RBI...Todd also played winter ball for the Maui Stingrays.

COLLEGE: Helton capped an outstanding collegiate career at the University of Tennessee by being named Baseball America's 1995 College Player of the Year, the SEC Player of the Year, the Mizuno/Collegiate Baseball Co-National Player of the Year and was named All-America for the 3rd straight season...the southpaw set 19 school records in his 3 years in Knoxville...for his career, he batted .370 (280-for-756) with 199 runs, 65 doubles, 38 home runs and 238 RBI...on the mound, he was 19-5 with a 2.24 ERA (193.0 ip, 48 er) and 23 saves...issued 49 walks with 172 strikeouts...still holds school's all-time records in 11 categories, including home runs, RBI, walks, and saves...tossed 47.2 consecutive scoreless innings at one point in 1994...as a junior in 1995, Todd led the Vols to the College World Series, both at the plate and on the hill...he narrowly missed the '95 SEC triple crown, posting the second-best average (.407), while leading in homers (20) and RBI (92)...as a hurler in '95, Helton was 8-2 with a 1.66 ERA and 12 saves...he made 4 starts on the mound, each a complete-game victory...was also a quarterback for the Tennessee football team, starting 3 games during the '94 season in place of an injured Jerry Colquitt.

PERSONAL: Todd Lynn Helton...he and his wife, Christy, have a daughter, Tierney Faith (9/24/02)...the Helton family resides in Brighton, Colo., along with their chocolate labs, Abby and Greeley...a '92 graduate of Knox Central (Tenn.) High School, he lettered in baseball and football...was a Baseball America prep All-American during his senior season of '92, batting .655 (51-for-78)...in December of 2003, Helton presented the Gatorade High School Football Player of the Year Award for the state of Colorado to Loveland's Jeff Byers...Todd himself was a Gatorade Player of the Year in Tennessee for both baseball and football...was named the Boy Scouts Man of the Year for Tennessee in 2004...received the 2002 Humanitarian Award at the Sports Fans Choice Awards presented by the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame...was the recipient of the Rockies' Roberto Clemente Award in both 2000 and 2002...participates in the Rockies "Care & Share Program" and makes visits to The Children's Hospital...asks fans to donate $25 to his "Autographs For a Cause," program and mails them a signed picture in return...in October of 2002, Helton and a few other big leaguers were invited to join President George W. Bush for dinner at the White House...his teammates named him their club player representative in 1998, the first time the Rockies have named a rookie to that role...following his rookie season, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame named him its 1998 Professional Athlete of the Year...was enshrined into the Arizona Fall League Hall of Fame in July of 2003...Todd played for the Peoria Javelinas in 1996...signed by Ty Coslow.

balloting...a sprained right wrist, suffered during an at-bat Sept.13 at San Francisco, kept him out of action during the Los Angeles series, Sept. 14-16...on Sept. 23 vs. Arizona, he was 3-for-5 with a double, 2 homers and 5 RBI...his 25th and final homer was a 3-run blast in the season finale, Sept. 27 vs. San Francisco, helping erase a 7-run deficit to beat the Giants...12 of Helton's 25 HR either tied the game or put the Rockies in front...his club lead-

ROCKY TOP TENNESSEE

As many know by now, Todd Helton was not just a baseball star at the University of Tennessee, he was also a quarterback for the gridiron Vols...but simply calling him "Peyton Manning's backup" is a mistake...in fact, Helton beat out Manning and another highly touted freshman, Brannndon Stewart, for the No. 2 quarterback job behind Jerry Colquitt out of fall camp in 1994...when Colquitt suffered a season-ending knee injury in the '94 opener at UCLA on Sept. 3, Helton saw the bulk of the playing time that afternoon in relief, but Tennessee still lost 25-23...Helton then made his first collegiate start the following week at Georgia, and completed 9-of-13 passes for 110 yards and one touchdown in leading the Vols to a 41-23 victory over the Bulldogs...the southpaw started two more games, a 31-0 loss to Florida on Sept. 17 and then a 24-21 loss at Mississippi State on Sept. 24...in that Sept. 24th game, Todd suffered a sprained Medial Collateral Ligament in the first half and did not return...Manning took over from there and became Tennessee's all-time passing leader...Stewart transferred to Texas A&M...Helton's final appearance as a quarterback came late in UT's 65-0 drubbing of Vanderbilt on Nov. 26...he went on to be named Baseball America's Collegiate Player of the Year on the baseball diamond the following spring and was drafted by the Rockies as the eighth overall selection that June.

A MAINSTAY

Todd Helton has missed consecutive starts at first base only 10 times out of a total of 1,257 games...in fact, there have been only three occasions in which he has even been out of the lineup for more than two games; July 26-Aug. 9 (15 straight while on DL with left calf strain), May 21-28, 2004 (six straight due to a strained left oblique muscle) and Sept. 14-16, 1998 (three straight because of a sprained right wrist)...listed here are the 10 times that Todd has missed two consecutive starts at first base and who replaced him.
